WELCOME TO CHEF LEE'S PEKING

THE ULTIMATE EXPERIENCE IN CHINESE CUISINE
PEKING - SZECHUAN

Peking cooking is the food of the great wheat-growing northern plain. It is famed for its use of lamb and beef, and dishes that are often served with heavy and spicy sauce.

Szechwan cooking. Historically, Szechuan has been one of the most prosperous regions of China. Thanks to its rich soil and temperate climate, its major crops of rice and oil-bearing grains can be farmed almost yearround. The most striking feature of Szechuan cooking is liberal use of red peppers, fresh ginger, garlic, and the spice known as Szechwan pepper. However, we stand ready to modify any dish in order to accommodate your taste.

The whole culinary delight of China which distinguishes Chinese from European cooking depends on the art mixing and blending of colors, aroma, flavors and textures of food. Among the four regional culinary styles, the gourmet of Peking has been crowned as the king of Chinese cuisine, reflecting the fact that the emperor and his courtiers recruited the best chefs in China and encouraged them to develop new dishes.

Being committed to the culinary art of living, we Chef Lee's Peking Restaurant workers wish to share with our guests the wonderful moment together in appreciation for this beautiful and merry art of living. Our courtesy and cooking will certainly make your visit the most enjoyable experience to remember.
